
Proceedings of Synod Postponement.

1/1916

AN ORDINANCE providing for the postponement of certain proceedings of Synod and for other purposes.

WHEREAS it is expedient that the proceedings of the present Session of Synod should not extend beyond certain special business AND WHEREAS it is inconvenient during such Session to hold any elections and it is expedient that provision should be made for the matters hereafter mentioned the Synod of the Diocese of Sydney in pursuance of the powers in that behalf conferred upon it by the Constitutions for the management and good government of the Church of England within the State of New South Wales ordains as follows:—

1. This Ordinance may be cited as the "Proceedings Postponement Temporary Ordinance 1916."

2. All elections and appointments which under any Ordinances rules or resolutions of Synod respectively could have been or could be made by Synod at this present Session shall be postponed and may be made at the next ensuing Session in lieu of this Session of Synod and shall take effect accordingly. All persons who immediately before the present Session of Synod held office under any such Ordinances Rules or Resolutions shall respectively continue to hold office in the same way as if this present Session of Synod had not been summoned or held.

3. This present Session of Synod shall not be deemed to be an ordinary Session of Synod within the meaning of the Regulations relating to Ordinances promoted under the provisions of the "Sydney Bishopric and Church Property Act 1887" or of the "Church of England Property Act of 1889."

4. All matters now respectively under reference to the Standing Committee or to Select or other Committees of Synod may respectively be proceeded with in all respects as if this present Session of Synod had not been summoned or held.
